Remarkable Tribute to a Colored Man.
The following tribute penned by Rev. Dr. E. B. Barnes, pastor of the Christian Church of this city, and unanimously adopted and signed by the members of the Local Option Executive Committee of Richmond and other citizens, was handed to the colored temperance orator, Prof. E. W. B. Curry, of Urbana, Ohio, President of the Curry Normal and Industrial School for colored children.

This tribute far better describes the work done here by Prof. Curry than any statement which might be made and it is published by special order of the Committee which planned and fought to a successful conclusion the recent memorable campaign and which resulted in a majority of 122 against the licensed saloon:

RESOLUTIONS COMMENDING PROF. CURRY

Richmond, Ky., March 4, 1911.

To whom it may concern:

We the undersigned members of the Local Option Campaign Committee of the city of Richmond, which has this day finished its work, take this opportunity to commend the services of Prof. E. W. B. Curry, of Urbana, Ohio, President of the Curry Normal and Industrial School, to all communities who may need assistance in promoting the great work of temperance. Prof. Curry has been with us in two successful campaigns, and we speak with a confidence born of knowledge.

In the first place, we gladly place ourselves on record in acknowledging that a large measure of our success in each campaign was due to the untiring efforts of Prof. Curry. We are happy to add that each campaign resulted in victory for the temperance cause.

Secondly—Prof. Curry is an unusual worker for his cause from the day that he comes upon the scene of his labors until the hour of his departure therefrom. If ever a worker gave a Committee full service, not sparing himself, that victory might crown his efforts, we cheerfully agree that Prof. Curry is that man.

Fifthly—Among his own race, he moves with the affection of a father, and the power of an oracle. He wins their confidence and esteem. They listen to his counsels, and never for a moment has their confidence been misplaced. He is an example to them of the possibilities of their race.

Thirdly—While in our city he spoke frequently to audiences composed of white and colored people. In this part of the world that fact is significant. No ordinary man can do that. But the people believe in him, for they have come to regard him as a refined Christian gentleman. He won laurels from both races, and from persons in every walk of life.

Fourthly—Prof. Curry is an unusual worker for his cause from the day that he comes upon the scene of his labors until the hour of his departure therefrom. If ever a worker gave a Committee full service, not sparing himself, that victory might crown his efforts, we cheerfully agree that Prof. Curry is that man.

Fifthly—Among his own race, he moves with the affection of a father, and the power of an oracle. He wins their confidence and esteem. They listen to his counsels, and never for a moment has their confidence been misplaced. He is an example to them of the possibilities of their race.

Sixthly—To sum up our appreciation of him. We believe in him because we know him, and have had abundant opportunity to observe the life that he leads, while this prosperous Local Option gentleman. He won laurels from both races, and from persons in every walk of life.

W. F. PITTMAN, of Boyle county, candidate for the legislature against Francis Driscoll, has announced two planks in his platform. One is against the continuation of the Normal Schools of the state and is for the abolishing of the Kentucky State Fair. The other is that the gray matter is a creature must go along the stageline. The others? It's a mystery should swallow him with a loud whooping vote that he would never get the idea he is not fit for law after all this "decadence." His opponent should have to make it clear that Pittman has sent more red "Aloud Builders" to the legislature in the past years than any other county in the state. Shame on his political advisors, that they free him is unexpected victim to believe he is running on a real live platform.

Did you notice in report of the American Tobacco Co., Mrs. Pittman's claim for the year, just $50,000 in excess of the previous year and that was on tobacco which they bought for 15 to 20 cents per pound? I'm sure what it will be next year on tobacco that they have lost just that many dollars an average of about 7 cents. If this is monopoly in restraint of trade, then there isn't such a thing as being in restraint of trade.

WILKINSON just on a whirlwind campaign to raise money for the new hospital, but the Democrat says, was nothing but the "whirl" restricted. Richmond made a whirlwind and in our day required a large debt on the Pattee A. Clay Infirmary.

He has a wife and eight children, and the citizens of that community very liberally contributed to their welfare. County Judge Shaeckford has also been appealed to for aid.

Great Band.

One of the features of the local option campaign was unfortunately omitted from the columns of the Courier, namely, the right to have a reserve school mentioned.

The Board of Education, in the leadership of C. C. Campbell, the organization president, has done a great deal to promote the cause.

There may be great opposition to this, but the people are to be commended for their knowledge and interest.

Sunday school classes are to be held in the school room of the First Baptist Church, on Main Street, before the 11th day of April.

Good Idea.

The prohibiting of duck shooting on Lake Keokuk for the past two years has brought about a state of affairs that local hunters claim is an excellent one. The muskrats, have come in great droves this season and the surrounding ponds have afforded some fine sport. They also feed in the evening in the large corn fields. Duck shooting was allowed in the fall. It was a very rare thing to get a real good day's sport on account of the large number of muskrats who frequent the place. Hundreds have been attracted to this big body of water this year, and it will be a good day's sport.

Don't : Overlook : Good : Things

The Man who invented the hinged collar button and got rich by it, saw a good thing that had been within six inches of millions of men's eyes for fifty years.

A young chap came into the store Saturday—wanted to know the minute he got inside whether we had such and such a suit that was in the window on Monday. "No it was sold—I knew it," he said "a friend of mine has it on."

"I've admired that suit in the window two or three times but I'll be grieved if I thought it could be bought for the price he told me he paid." "Got anything like it?" "Why don't you put prices on them in the window?" "Who made the suit any way?"

Most Clothiers never say a word about the fabrics from which clothes are made, other than "they are all wool." Naturally at any first class shop you expect to obtain "all wool." But, won't it interest you to learn about colors and patterns?

The fabrics from which "Griffin Clothes" are made are the smartest of weaves from the best-known mills in the world. In color, they range from plain blacks and blues to the popular browns, pleasing grays and stunning tafts. There are small checks, large overplaid, herringbone stripes and fancy stripes, very beautiful, but of no decided pattern.

Thus, reinforcing every fabric is the quality, the all wool part. "Griffin Clothes" will please you, because of their fabric and style. "Griffin Clothes" are all wool.

Scott's Emulsion

is the original—has been the standard for thirty-five years.

There are thousands of so-called "just as good" Emulsions, but they are not—they are simply imitations which are never as good as the original. They are like thin milk—SCOTT'S is thick like a heavy cream.

If you want it, thin, do it yourself—with water—but don't buy it thin.
